How the law protects you

General Data Protection Regulation (2018) law says that we are allowed to use personal information only if we have a proper reason to do so. This includes sharing it outside Mainstage Ltd. The law says we must have one or more of these reasons:

- To fulfil a contract we have with you, or
- When it is our legal duty, or
- When it is in our legitimate interest, or
- When you consent to it.

A legitimate interest is when we have a business or commercial reason to use your information. But even then, it must not unfairly go against what is right and best for you. If we rely on our legitimate interest, we will tell you what that is.
